The Costa Pacifica, sister ship to the Costa Serena and the Costa Concordia, is a 3780-passenger ship that proudly waves the Italian flag. Like the Costa Concordia, the Costa Pacifica boasts one of the largest spas at sea – the 20,000+-square-foot Samsara Spa. Other popular features include two retractable-roof swimming pools and a Formula 1 racecar driving simulator. And, the Costa Pacifica upholds Costa's "Cruising Italian Style" theme. To be sure, delectable cuisine, gracious hospitality and stylish architecture make cruising on the Pacifica feel like an authentic Italian experience. On cruises that depart during the months of March and April, Costa requires that at least one passenger in each cabin be 25 or older.

Seabourn Odyssey

For discounted sailings on the Seabourn Odyssey

The Seabourn Odyssey is the largest of the Seabourn fleet, carrying 450 passengers, and brings a new class of luxury to the Seabourn line. In addition to its larger size, it also offers the highest space to passenger ratio, and the largest percentage of veranda cabins of any other ship in the fleet. Of the 225 suites on board, 199 have private verandas. All rooms boast granite bathrooms with a separate tub and shower and twin sinks with a glass vanity.

Experience impeccable service at one of the four dining venues. The main dining room, the Restaurant, offers the convenience of open seating with gourmet menus by celebrity chef Charlie Palmer. Those seeking a more casual meal can enjoy the evening breeze and the regional specialties of the Veranda Café. The Odyssey also has 24-hour room service with course-by-course meals available in passengers' suites during dining hours.

Relax and take in the view on the large sun-beds located on the highest point of the ship, or spend the day in the Spa, featuring his and hers Finnish Saunas, aromatic steam rooms, a gym and aerobics area. Spend your evening dancing in the Grand Salon, or enjoying the fine wines, champagnes and spirits in one of the other open bars.

MSC Splendida
